Corporal James Tanner !

Will deliver his Great Lecture entitled:
"ARMY LIFE, GRAVE and GAY,"

--AT THE--
Kingston Opera House,
Thursday Eve., Jan. 24, 1889.

Mr Tanner is peculiarly qualified to speak on this subject, having enlisted in 1861 and participated in all the battles of the Army of the Potomac until the Second Bull Run, where both of his legs were severed by a bullet.

shen—left her dead on the field—captured and paroled. When sufficiently recovered he was made a clerk in the Department under Secretary Stanton, and on the night of Lincoln's assassination was employed in taking notes of the official examination—standing by the bedside of the dying President.

Admitted to the Bar in 1869, since which time his services on the rostrum and stump have been in constant demand. He has spoken to delighted audiences in the largest halls in nearly every principal city in the country. It is not extravagant to say that

Corporal Tanner is the most powerful orator on the American platform. There are times when his audiences are held spell-bound by his matchless oratory and magnetic eloquence. In depicting the humorous and pathetic he has no superior, while his keen sense of the

The press throughout the country are unanimous that, for genuine humor rhetorical, persuasive and laughable recital, Corporal

Tanner is without an equal on the rostrum. Amusing and pathetic incidents are intermingled with a master's hand. The recital of scenes and experiences on the pickett line, battle field, prison pen, hospital and the bivouac, alternately convulse his audiences with laughter and melt them to tears.

A FEW OPINIONS OF THE PRESS:

For two hours he fascinated and held the attention of his audience, now convulsed with laughter, then in tears.—Ithaca Journal.

The finest orator before the public, his sen-

His descriptive powers, recital of comical army incidents, and pathos are marvelous.—

He spoke two hours and the audience wanted him to go on. Could have listened to him all night.—Lawrence American.

FREE TRADE IN AMERICAN COLLEGES.

Rev. Dr. Cyrus Hamlin, formerly of Roberts College, Constantinople, and later of Middlebury College, Vt., explains in a letter to the Manchester, Vt., Journal the reason why free trade is taught to so large an extent in our colleges. Our origin, he says, is English, and our science, literature and colleges are founded on English ideas and models. For the first half-century of our national existence our text books were imported from England or reprinted. Since then our professors and presidents have worked over the English text books so as to give them an American name. All the books on economics written in England, with few exceptions, are free trade books. The same may be said of their magazines or periodical literature. Our institutions of learning have been fed on this for many years. Our literary men, our college presidents and professors, visit England in very large numbers. If they are free traders they are received everywhere with honor. Dr. Hamlin mentions that President Eliot of Harvard has been made the recipient of the most liberal hospitality and flattering attentions at Cambridge, England, though if he were a protectionist he would visit Cambridge and Oxford by surffiance and be shown the colleges only by "tipping" the guides. Our colleges feel this constant, universal pressure of England, which is saturated with free trade. Hence those whose reading and social aspirations are toward England are naturally free traders.

The graduates of our colleges come forth full of this free trade wisdom, but when they come into active life and have to meet the questions of economic laws practically, they do as Garfield did—pass over to the protectionist side. Harvard boasts of her fidelity to free trade, but the two contrasted meetings of the autumn prove that her graduates, coming into practical life, very largely renounce the teachings of their presidents and professors. Our intelligent business men are able to see how false and foolish are England's boasts. After a half-century of unceasing effort she has not converted one of the nations of Europe to her system. Even her own colonies have forsaken her and adopted the American system of protection. It is a weak and silly thing for our institutions to hold on to this British error. It discredits learning as something opposed to the practical duties and interests of life. Dr. Hamlin says in conclusion: "Let no protectionist in future contribute anything to a free trade college."

It is not unlikely that Chairman Bree's idea of a "campaign of intellect" had its origin in the knowledge of this prevalence of free trade notions in our colleges. While he could not expect to make Harvard or Yale graduates of the great body of voters in a single campaign, he hoped to be able to persuade them that a pretense of belief in the free trade doctrine would be accepted as evidence of an amount of intelligence high above the average. There are thousands of men with average intelligence, who could without doubt be caught by this silly delusion. They are free traders, ergo they are as wise as college professors. And yet the number of these foolish ones was not large enough to re-elect Mr. Cleveland. The American idea was triumphant in spite of Bree's very "taking" device, simply because the majority are not fools.

THE SENATE TARIFF BILL PASSED.

The Senate tariff bill passed that body late yesterday afternoon by a vote of 32 to 30. The vote was on straight party lines. Senators Brown and Payne, Democrats, had voted for some amendments looking to more effective protection, but when the opportunity was presented to kick over the party traces their devotion to principle failed them, and they went back to the free trade crowd. The same course was taken by Senators Faulkner, Pugh, Turpie, Voorhees, Bate, Wilson and Daniel, though all of these showed themselves protectionists a few days ago, when an assault was attempted upon an article of production in all of the states represented by the different gentlemen—bituminous coal. They are ready to defend some special interest of their own—to maintain that protection is good when it is applied to Democratic states and interests—but when a bill looking to the welfare of all sections of the country is presented, they scurry back into the free trade camp. By every Republican Senator stood by the bill. The rumors of anticipated desertion by the Pennsylvania Senators were put to rest when they answered to their name. The bill was passed by Republican votes alone, and the party now has a record on the tariff question by which it can stand. The bill now goes to the House, where it is likely to be referred to the Ways and Means Committee, as Mr. Randall is opposed to having it sent to his committee. If it gets into Mr. Mills's committee, it will probably be smothered till the close of the session. Or even if that committee should report it back to the House a point of order would send it to the Committee of the Whole, where it would be subject to endless amendment, and undoubtedly be talked to death. It looks as though the fiftieth Congress will go out of existence without accomplishing any revenue legislation, though it can claim that it has nearly relieved the treasury of the surplus that was a subject of such intense anxiety to Mr. Cleveland a year ago. The Republican party will stand by the bill which has just passed the Senate. The Democratic party passed the Mills bill through the House, and that bill will define its position in the next Presidential campaign if it misses the opportunity to correct its record before the 4th of March.

NEW ENGLAND'S "WHITE SLAVES."

Mr. Coke of Texas made an eloquent speech about the "white slaves" of Fall River, Mass., a few days ago. He had learned that one of them, a weaver, had to dig clams to keep his family in food. The Southern Senators all lifted up their voices and wept when they heard this touching story. If the industrious operatives of Fall River were forced to dig clams, what, they asked, could be the condition of the operatives in the interior cities, where there are no clams to dig?

Mr. Hoar of Massachusetts was not among the sympathizing ones, though the sufferings described had been endured in his own back-livick. But he invariably resolved to look into the matter, and, sitting at his desk, he wrote a letter of inquiry to Mr. Rouseville, Treasurer of the Shove mills. The reply reached the Senator last Friday evening, and he immediately sent it to the Secretary of the Senate, by whom it was read.

Mr. Rouseville stated that the cotton mills of Fall River employ about 19,000 men, women and children. There has been no important strike in five years and only two shut-downs in ten years. The wages average $11 per week in the Shove mills, in some of the other mills $13. The deposits in the Fall River savings banks aggregate $11,800,000, or about $620 for each operative. Of the 600 hands employed in the Shove Mills, 385 are over 21 years of age, and out of this number 103 own the homes they live in. The number of employees who live in homes of their own or their fathers is 107. So more than one-fourth of the people employed were living beneath their own roofs and not paying rent. The average for the entire city, he said, would nearly equal this showing.

After the letter was read, Mr. Hoar invited the Texas Senator to name a manufacturing community of Fall River's size, anywhere on earth outside of the United States, in which the operatives are equally well off. Mr. Coke has not yet responded.

Origin of Some Proverbs.

A couple of rogues engaged in distilling illicit mountain dew whisky, quarreled and fought one day, and, falling out of a window, both were killed. Then their stock fell into the hands of a couple of newspaper men who happened along. "When rogues fall out honest men get their due,"

It was who laid waste their hats on the backs of their heads that "pride went before a fall" bonnet.

Mr. Toodles often forbade his wife going to auctions, but "twasn't any use; she would go. Then he would get drunk, and raise his voice, and she would go. He would then say, "You can't get your cake and hold it, too." "You can't get your cake and hold it, too,"

It was the man who wet it too often, who "paid too dear for his whistle."—Texas Sittings.

CURRENT HUMOR.

Popinjay—Did you know that Blotson's wife plays poker with him at home?
Dumpey—Go to. I don't believe it.
Popinjay—Fact! Augustus saw her chasing him with one of the other evening before the curtains were drawn.—Burlington Free Press.

It is said that when Mrs. Cleveland travels over the Pennsylvania railroad between New York and Washington she always observes and calls to the attention of others, if she is not alone, to a large sign on a factory standing close by the track in Newark, N. J. It bears the firm name "Cleveland & Frank."—Leedsport Journal.

New Yorker—We have laundry interests in Troy, sir, worth millions.

Texas—What's the biggest individual concern worth?

New Yorker—Probably $30,000.

Texas—Pshaw! That's nothing. I've seen a one night's washout on the Mexican Central that cost the road half a million.—Philadelphia Item.

At a banquet of duels and chorus girls in New York last Monday night, one of the latter, in response to the toast, "The Old Country," told the following story to illustrate the British sturdiness: There is a town in Lincolnshire where no man ever goes to bed Saturday night without having a fight. A young woman met her brother.

"Why haven't you 'ome?" she asked.

"I've been 'ome," he replied. "Well, she said, 'I've been 'ome, and 'ome a hour ago."—New York Press.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Much more talk of Canadian annexation will move the South to propose Mexican annexation. Uncle Sam may get a surplus of territory and unit people in a headlong push for extended boundaries.—Syracuse Journal.

Evidence is accumulating going to show that the recent conflicts at the South were precipitated by ruffianly whites, so that they could have an excuse for driving thirty negroes off lands they had bought and paid for.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

Sixteen states have elected their Senators, and there is not among them all a conspicuous wealthy man, a full third are known to be poor men and the rest have a moderate competence. Half of the members have scarcely that, and in not a single Senatorial contest thus far has the election been decided by the weight of a man's purse. Yet the chatter about the Senate being a rich man's club will go on just the same because men and their rich men are chosen, and chosen nearly always for his ability as a manager independent of his wealth.—Philadelphia Press.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

Keeping a diary is not what it is cracked up to be. Thirty days of accuracy is about the limit of endurance; but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has never yet disappointed any one who has used it.

WILL YOU SUFFER WITH DYSPENSIA AND LIVER COMPLAINT? Sufferer's Visitor is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. R. Clark, Kingston.

INTERESTED PEOPLE.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50 cents and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

SAY NO ILL OF THE YEAR TILL IT BE PAST.

The winter brings you chapped lips, sore nose, colds, catarrhs, etc., but a little of Kemp's Balsam (endorsed by leading society ladies) will prove a friend in need. Never fails. At all druggists, 25 cents, or mail stamps to Hop Co., New-London, Conn. Sample free.

Pain from indigestion, dyspepsia, and too hearty eating, is relieved at once by taking one of Carter's Little Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this.

The blood is the source of health. Keep it pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar in its curative power.

WHY WILL YOU CURE WHEN SHILLIB'S CURE WILL GIVE IMMEDIATE RELIEF. Price 10 cents, 50 cents and $1. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

FOR ACTORS, SINGERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS. Dr. Hoxie's Disks, now universally used by the most eminent men and women in professional life, for Inflamed Throat, Hoarseness and Cough, 25 cents.

Leading physicians recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Old and young take it with perfect safety. It cleanses the blood, strengthens the nerves, and vitalizes the system. Popular experience has long placed this medicine at the head of tonic alteratives.

They are deservedly popular over all others—Hop plectors, quick-acting, non-killing and soothing.

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not a life threatening ailment, it is among the most distressing, annoying and disgusting of the flesh in its behavior, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure or any of the multitudinous modes of treatment until the introduction of Dr. Croan's Nasal Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising.

THE REV. GEO. H. TRAYER, of Bourton, Ind., writes: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILLIB'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

Stick headache is readily cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones and regulates the digestion, and cures the appetite.

AN ENGLISH MEDICAL AUTHORITY affirms that the best regimen for preserving health may be summed up in the maxim, "keep the head cool, the feet warm and the bowels active." There is a world of wisdom in the observation. Obstructed constipation, or constiveness, is an exciting cause of other diseases; and with many persons of sedentary habits or occupations this inaction of the bowels is a source of constant annoyance, producing piles, prolapse of the rectum, flatulency and various dyspeptic symptoms. All these are ward off and health is maintained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.

A SOUND LEGAL OPINION. E. Bainbridge, Maudsley, Esq., County Attorney, Clay County, Texas, says: "I have used Electric Bitters for many happy seasons. My brother, who was very low with Malaria Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life." "I have used Electric Bitters for many happy seasons. My brother, who was very low with Malaria Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a life testimony, saying: "I positively believe he would have died had he not used Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malaria Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unexcelled. Price 50c and $1. At Vantage Bros., Rondout, and F. J. R. Clark's, Kingston.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Dr. Williams' Soothing Syrup. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, is the oldest and best female nurse and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

KATE FIELD'S BUSTLE.

Kate Field says she is tired of the world, and would like to live apart from the fashionable bustle. Let her take it off then. Anna Jones, a lady of Marlboro, Fla., says: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best medicine I've ever taken." These pills are a tonic and a purifier, and will cure all ailments and restore the system to its normal state. All women and men alike need them.

EVERYBODY LIKES to be called handsome, especially the young ladies. But that is simply impossible as long as their face is covered with pimples, blotches and sores. But wait, there is no need of this; one of our bottles of Sulphur Bitters will remove all such disfigurements, and make your face fair and rosy.—Fannie Bell, Edinboro.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES. Symptoms: Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; with scratching, it inflamed to continue tearing form, which causes blood and mucus, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals the ulcer, and in most cases removes the tumor. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

A LUCKY MAN.

Mr. Lyman Crawford, Druggist, of Springfield, Mass., says: "I was afflicted with kidney disease in its worst form, and with a perfect recollection of all that was done for me, that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, of London, N. Y., gave me permanent relief. If your druggist does not keep the medicine, address the proprietor, Rondout, N. Y."

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED.

The Most Agonizing, Humiliating, Itching, Scaly, and Burning Eczemas are Cured By the Cuticura Remedies, when Physicians and all Other Remedies Fail.

I have been afflicted since last March with a skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scales and sores and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Sending your Cuticura Remedies so highly recommended, I decided to give them a trial, using the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and Resolvent internally. I made this my permanent cure. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement. MISS CLARA A. FREDERICK, Broad Rock, Conn.

A Word About Catarrh.

"It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the throat and food passages, that Catarrh makes its headquarters. It is established, it eats into the very vitals and renders life a long drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, impairing the power of vision, and in many cases, by the use of small, taunting the throat and killing the refined passages of taste. Indiscretions, creeping on from a single cold in the head, or a common cold, the mucous lining and envelops the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient and all alleviations are simply pronounced suffering, leading to a fatal termination. Sanford's Radical Cure, by Inhalation and by Internal Administration, has never failed; even when the disease has reached its most advanced stage, and the patient is in a state of complete prostration, it has been found to be a most reliable remedy on delicate constitutions, bearing, small and taste have been recovered and the disease thoroughly driven out."

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of Catarrh Cure, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one IMPROVED INHALER, neatly wrapped in one package, with full directions, price $1. PORTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON.
